- Significant improvement will IMPACT teaching and learning.

Characteristics of a Learning Community

- Shared mission, vision, values and goals (the four pillars)

- Action orientation/experimentation
- Commitment to continuous improvement
- Results orientation

The Four Pillars

- Mission
- Vision
- Values
- Goals

Community begins with a shared vision. It's sustained by teachers who, as school leaders, bring inspiration and direction to the institution. Who, after all, knows more about the classroom? Who is better able to inspire children? Who can evaluate, more sensitively, the educational progress of each student? And who but teachers create a true community for learning? Teachers are, without question, the heartbeat of a successful school.
